Friendly Atmosphere Reigns at Skating Meet; Russians Joke on Geisha Girls, Aggression

SAPPORO, Japan. — Friendly Russian ice-skaters drank with Americans and made jokes about aggression during their recent week-end stay in this frigid northern Japanese city.

The Russians, who won the world skating championships in Sapporo recently, amazed American newspapermen by talking freely about anything from Geisha girls to the secret police. At a banquet held at the Grand Hotel here to climax the international skating tournament, they drank together until the early morning hours — beers for the Americans and orange pop for the Russians.

About fifty kimono-clad Japanese girls attended the party to dance with the skaters and officials that gathered in Sapporo for the meet. The girls fox-trotted with the Russians and jitterbugged with the [illegible] Yanks, causing Soviet assistant manager Andrei Smirnov to ask, "This Boogie-woogie dance is very difficult, is it not?"

The Americans explained the difference between Boogie-woogie and Lindy, and went on to discuss Tokyo night clubs, twisted Russian cigarettes, yatching off Long Island, and Iowa hospitals.

The Russians were even willing to talk politics, and one reporter got into a long but friendly argument with a member of Russia's diplomatic mission in Japan.

The Russians said that the American FBI was far stronger than the Soviet Secret Police. He said he could not believe that the FBI learned Harry Dexter White was a spy but could not force him from the government. "Where is Harry Dexter White now?" the Russian asked, adding a knowing smile when told that White was dead.

The Soviet diplomat also asked why America elected a military man president if it does not like war. But he said, "America and Russia got along well in the last war, and they should try to keep their friendship."

Most of the time, however, the talk was non-political. Once Russia's Iurlji Sergeyev asked the date of an American newsman to dance, and walked with her onto the floor.

"Look," laughed another Russian. "Look! Russian aggression!"

A historian with a prejudice cannot be objective in his review of past events. Where truth is concerned, any prejudice is likely to record only what is favourable to itself has to be thrown out of the window, so to speak. Any attempt to "doctor up" certain events to prevent a definite slant to any action in the past is fiction, not fact. The ordinary reader of history is not trained to access facts with objective reality; therefore, he has to take some other person's word for it that what he reads is true. However, he does have his own common sense to guide him, as well as some self-evident truths.

An obvious truth is this! A thing can be judged by its "fruits"; what is wrong has in itself the seeds of its own destruction, while what is right and good will endure in spite of obstacles.

Another truth, which should be obvious but is not seen because of prejudice, is this! Evil attacks most viciously that which is good; it does not bother with what is bad, except to give it an extra shove downward.

• • •

Evil can put on the appearance of righteousness in order to deceive the unthinking into aiding the illusion of right.

Centuries upon centuries ago, when Christians still did not care to emerge from the Catacombs under the Caesars, when small colonies of Christians flourished in North Africa and in Asia Minor, a Roman, reporting from an outpost of the Empire to the Emperor Trojan, wrote: "How these Christians love one another!" Here was a pagan, probably one who despised the Christians, confirming the sign of the Christian faith: Love. Love for God, love for his neighbour, were the basic rules for his belief, his purpose, his life as a Christian. A true Christian could not say he loved God if he hated his neighbour; he could not love God and love evil at the same time. Therefore, if any man professed to be a Christian, he would not foment distrust and division, but he would foster understanding and unity.

Evil declares itself sooner or later.

It was inevitable then, if the report in the Toronto Globe and

MISS VALENTINE 1954

Eight Toronto Lasses To Vie for Title of Queen

TORONTO. — In following up the enthusiasm shown by the public last year, the Toronto Young Buddhists' Society is again sponsoring a Miss Valentine Contest in conjunction with its annual Valentine Dance being held this forthcoming Saturday, Feb. 13, at Masaryk Hall.

Eight enthusiastic contestants will be vying for the honour of being crowned the Valentine Queen. Miss June Watanabe will be representing the Toronto AYPA, Miss Amie Nakamura from Club Rec Socratic, and Miss Akemi Horiuchi from the Junior Nisei Badminton Club.

Club Ami will be represented by Miss Marie Shoji, the Nisei Flyers by Miss Pat Baba, and Club Afterhours by Miss Eiko Shintani. Miss Kay Takahashi is representing Club Queens, and Miss Susie Tanouye has been chosen to appear in behalf of the Toronto YBS.

The winner will be crowned by last year's Queen, Miss Grace Kanda.

Toronto Nisei dentist, Dr. H. R. Akaye has offered to present a challenge trophy for the occasion, which will be installed as a perpetual award. A free portrait will be given the chosen queen by photographer Sam Yamada, and a silver locket presented from the sponsors.

Judgment of the queen will be based on personality, poise beauty and other factors. A popularity vote cast by the attending public will constitute 25 percent of the decision, the other 75 percent to be polled by a five-man panel of judges. The adjudicators will be Ken Johnson, movie editor for the Toronto Telegram, Sam Yamada of Yamada Studios, artist Fred Kondo, Miss Hope Handa of The Continental Times, and former New Canadian editor Ken Adachi.

In order to avoid undue delay in the selection procedures, the sponsors request that all ballots be cast by the attending public by 10:15 p.m., following appearance of the candidates. The doors of Masaryk Hall at 212 Cowan Avenue will be opened at 8 p.m.

General Meeting Slated by Tor. JCCA Feb. 28; Election, Reports, Films Included on Agenda

TORONTO. — In connection with the expiration of the 1953 executive term, a general meeting has been slated by the Toronto JCCA Chapter to take place on Sunday, Feb. 28, at the Canadian Legion Hall from 7:30 p.m.

While the agenda has not yet been decided in detail, there will be an election of new officers from among the candidates selected by the nominating committee, reports on the chapter's various activities during the past term, and the showing of films and other entertainment.

Further details regarding the program for the general meeting will be announced upon decision.

At the recent executive meeting held on Feb. 7, one of the decisions passed was to give a sum donation of $25 to the Kenora Thistles Hockey Club scheduled to go on a goodwill tour at the invitation of the Japan Skating Club next month. An appeal had been made from one of the executives of the Kenora Junior Chamber of Commerce seeking assistance from the JCCA for this project.

Two visitors from Hamilton were present at the meeting — Mits Nakashiba and Dick Kanno.

Hawaii Issei Aged 100 Admits He's Not as Good a Fisherman Now

WAIKANE, Hawaii. — Kakuzo Takata, who celebrated his 100th birthday recently, admits he's "not too good" as a commercial fisherman these days, but he still makes a living at it.

He is especially proud that he doesn't have to wear glasses or use a hearing aid. His employer, Mitsutaro Uyemura, a mere youth at 65, says Takata appears to have the physical age of the average person about 70.

Takata says he was born in Fukuoka prefecture "in the year Ansei 1", which he explains was 1854, on Jan. 20. At that time, whaling was a major industry in Hawaii, then still ruled by a native king.

Takata, however, did not come to Hawaii until he was 34 years old, in 1885. He arrived aboard the old Yamashiro-Maru after a [illegible] voyage from Japan [illegible] other immigrants. He [illegible] as a cabin-boy on [illegible] Kauai Island before turning fisherman.

He answered the usual question about how he has managed to live so long. "Although a fisherman, I don't care for fish. I care little for pork or meat too." He used to drink a little, but no more, and has hardly any coffee. He drinks a gallon and a half of water a day, he says. His meals consist of a bowlful of rice thrice a day and plenty of vegetables, tofu, and a quart of milk.

He doesn't think he'll see 200, but puts it "at the present rate I should live to at least 150."

Nineteen U.S. Nisei GI's Said Missing in Korea, Believed Dead

GOODWILL TOUR

Last week, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent quietly embarked on the first leg of his global tour — one that will be of doubtless significance in furthering goodwill between Canada and the rest of the free world.

It was disclosed by Mr. St. Laurent that the Far East is to be the main objective of his round-the-world itinerary. Better understanding with the free Asiatic powers is vital to the western world's cause.

In Japan, where he is scheduled to make a three-day visit in mid-March, the Prime Minister will be received as a state guest — the second such personage to be conferred the distinction in postwar Japan. U. S. Vice President Richard Nixon was the other.

As an ambassador of goodwill, we have no doubt that Mr. St. Laurent carries with him the good wishes of all the people of Canada.

FLOWER SHOW

As a menas of diffusing our cultural heritage among the general public, the representation of the Toronto Garden Club at the Hobby and Homecraft Show currently open on the CNE Grounds in Toronto is highly commendable.

It is through the knowledge and understanding of ancestral backgrounds and merits that different ethnic groups may attain closer harmony and eventual consolidation.

"BURNING THE BOOKS"

In recent weeks, this ominous phrase has echoed within the walls of Canadian democracy.

How often have attacks on the basic freedom of individuals been launched with this battle cry? The assault on Christianity in Roman times began with an attack on its book — the Bible. The Nazi regime utilized the technique of book destruction. Dictatorships everywhere recognize and fear the power of the freely written word — the influence of untrammeled thought. In dozens of undemocratic countries today, censorship of books and newspapers is a condition fundamental to the maintenance of political power.

Lately the cry of book burring was raised in Victoria. The mayor and some council members sought the destruction of certain "questionable" books in the public library. Is such practise likely to produce the sort of democracy which they ostensibly wish to protect from Communist inroads?

What begins as a campaign to suppress "Communist" writings will end as a campaign to throttle all opinions offensive to the group in power. "War begins in the minds of men," states the constitution of UNESCO. If peace is to be achieved in the minds of men, then the individual must be left free to search out of the truth and to practise it. Tolerance is not an easy road, but it is the only way to Truth.

Femme Fare

(Continuation)

Now, back to the typewriter. It's almost 4:30 p.m. And I have to catch the last mail about 6:00 p.m. I type a few words. "Niseis. . ." . . . "Maturity. . . "Love" but no go. When are all those words dripping with connotations and associations? Where's my psychology book. . . no, I haven't time to look them up now. Suddenly I notice the keys of my typewriter. They haven't been cleaned for months. I laboriously clean out the letters "O", "e" and "Q" . . .

I look at the clock. I've got just an hour to go to make the deadline, if I'm lucky. I take a clean sheet of paper and head it "Femme Fare." Now, cornered like a startled fawn, I begin typing:

"THE FIRST REQUISITE FOR A SUCCESSFUL COLUMNIST IS DISCIPLINE OF THE HIGHEST ORDER . . ."

BAITING THE BULL

Mail of Jan. 25 is reliable, that a spokesman for the Jehovah's Witnesses should have made this questionable and revealing statement, that the Baptists should have taken their quarrel with Quebec laws to the Supreme Court of Canada because two of the Justices were Baptists, and they might have given their co-religionists a better deal. Justices were expected to be biased in their judgment, according to this Jehovah's Witness. Well, Justices are human beings, but they are supposed to be objective.

* * *

Even the Evangelical Church of Germany took exception to the historical inaccuracies in the film "Martin Luther." There inaccuracies (I'm being polite!) have been proved not only by Catholic historians, but by Lutheran writers also. But as I said before, the ordinary person cannot be expected to be objective historians. The Luther of fiction, as presented in the film, must have suited the sponsors better than the Luther of history. Naturally, then, since Quebec had objected before to certain scenes in "Oliver Twist" as offensive to its Jewish citizens, some scenes in "Black Narcissus" as offensive to High Anglicans, and certainly the film censors would have done the same for any film disparaging the Protestant, why should they ignore their majority citizens, the Catholics?

After all, libel is a legal offence, and so are public nuisances, and insult and slander are never in good taste wherever you live. It would be wonderful if every one of us were capable of sound judgment, but our mental sanatoriums and jails are full of people who weren't, while hospitals attest to others, and the corner drug store proves some more. Our lack of judgment also obliges the government to demand certain safe standards in canning goods, in processing meats, in patent medicines. Even with all these safeguards, these bans and censorship, all around us to keep us from harm, we can get food poisoning, drug poisoning. If our bodily health is important to all of us, why not our mental health, our spiritual health? In fact, the first is the least important of the three. Then, why do we spend so much thought and energy and laws protecting the least important while ignoring the other two? The moment that anyone tries to protect us from our own bad judgment concerning our mental and spiritual welfare, there is an awful cry about "freedom" and the "integrity of private judgment." If anyone chooses self-destruction in spite of everything, well, that's his own choice, but it's hardly freedom, is it?

* * *

One has only to glance at the newsstands to see some of the garbage displayed to tempt the unwary, and to satisfy those who deliberately choose this type of dung-heap vulgarity. All these things from slander, bad judgment to obscenity. . . are any of them good?

These are some of the [illegible] of perversion of truth.

How to Write a Column

THE ALARM goes off in a strident crescendo. I grope for it, bumping my elbow on a lamp which knocks off a couple of books from my side table. I pause, wondering half-awake, if my landlord downstairs will tap on the ceiling again. We've been carrying on quite a tete-a-tete in this romantic fashion.

I make a bee line for the kitchen, head for the coffee canister and measure four tablespoons of coffee into the percolator by a kind of reflex conditioned by countless, similar Sundays in my life as a Columnist, 2nd Class.

I set the percolator on the stove — remembering to fill it with cold water — turning on the gas. And I crawl back into bed. I snuggle under my blanket. I close my eyes for just ten minutes — just long enough to dream up an idea. "Bed," I come to the conclusion, "is a wonderful place!" I should write a column on "There's no place like bed" . . . I would too, except that there's bound to be someone who would write to me on moral grounds. That's the difference between Shakespeare and me. He can write "O Sleep that knits up the ravel'd sleeve of care" and it's considered a gem. I write "O Bed that cures all ills. . ." and how much do you bet that it won't be hailed as rank indecency? It's tough being born after Shakespeare, I should have been before him. Then, anything I would ever write would be fresh and new and interesting. Or I should have been born later — say in the year 3000 AD, when we might be whistling through space on our own steam. . .

But it's time for coffee now. When the aroma of good java floats on the icy cold air of a yet-unawakened, cheerless household on a Sunday morning, I'm less reluctant about leaving a warm bed, and can be enticed into getting dressed. As I sip my coffee "in solitary", I begin thinking of possibilities for a column.

The sun is just coming up, and the snow piled high on the shed roof just below my kitchen window begins to catch fire from it. There's nary a breeze and the temperature is a friendly 28 degrees above. A perfect day for skiing, I think to myself. And then I remember that my skis have to be waxed and there's a gadget that needs to be fixed on my harness. And so I bring out my skis and give them a good waxing, and I spend the next hour pulling my harness apart and putting it together again. It's always a good idea to have all one's equipment ready beforehand, I tell myself.

I go back to the typewriter. My noiseless typewriter reverberates through the sleeping house like a tractor. I type "Femme Fare" at the top of a nice, clean, blank page. "After all," I say to myself, "it's a shame for the rest of the family to suffer when it's the only day of the week they can sleep in late!" And so reluctantly, I turn to my Sunday papers. I go through Lil Abner, Mrs. Worth, Out our Way, Dennis the Menace, skim over the front page, see what Milady is wearing this spring, and wonder if I should force myself to read the magazine supplement.

The telephone rings. An eager voice comes over the line: "Hi, Cindy, climb into your ski slacks. We'll pick you up in half an hour." I get no sympathy. "Never mind the column. You can whip one up after you get home. We're only going for the day to try that big hill. Or are you chicken?"

I say "No" like a martyred saint, resenting the insinuation that I'm "chicken". The next half hour I see myself and my friends coming down that big hill. I can see that tricky bump about halfway down. I get out my "How to Ski" book and for another half hour I try a couple of fancy turns. And then I make mental notes about reminding myself to take skiing more seriously. There's a footnote on page 3 which refers to people like me — who play at the sport but never take it seriously enough to become champions. And it might be kind of fun to be a ski champ. . .

It's now 2:30 p.m. Putting the idea of a cat nap behind me, I tell myself that I am a columnist, and stride to my typewriter with forced enthusiasm. What can I write about? The Slasher? That's been overdone to a point of becoming mass hysteria, and I feel so sorry for all those men who now cringe on street cars every time I board one. And it's downright morale-lowering to feel a man's eyes dropping away from me instead of giving me a quick glance of what I think is pleased appraisal. How about Valentine's Day. No. One can hardly send valentines to lost loves, although I've [illegible] learning a lot about life lately, and it seems that in many people's lives, "lost loves" count a great deal more than present ones.

I go through my pile of clippings in search of an idea. My [illegible] now looks like a lost trail in an organized paper chase. I [illegible] a clipping with today's date circled on it. It's a play on NBC with two great stars of the American stage. After all, I tell myself, if I'd gone with the gang up north, I'd have been away the whole [illegible]. What's one hour anyway? I turn on the radio. The play is [illegible] . . . the gradual unfolding of character, the mount[illegible] suspense. I'm no Carroll but I realize that while I'm under the [illegible] of an inspired performance, it might do me a lot of good [illegible] through my lines for our experimental studio production. And [illegible] I take my tatter'd script in hand and begin: "Marry, when [illegible] I here tales! As to privileges, I'll have no privilege but to see [illegible] Lady Ophelia happy. . ."

足は動かず、牛若の全身は震えた。

中門廊下の一間ほど先に足をとめていた公家が、引返してきて牛若に微笑を向けた。

それが、いまの母の夫、一條大藏卿長成だと、すぐに牛若は氣がついた。あまり立派な顔立ちではない。平凡な人物らしいが、牛若に好意を寄せているのは、その表情でわかる。

だが長成は、人目をはばかったのであろう、牛若には聲をかけず、常磐に何か低い聲でささやいた。

平家の人々の目については、という意味だったのだろうが、常磐はそこを動かず、まだ牛若を見つめ、何か言いたそうにした。

在日ソ連中佐のスパイ活動

既報、在日ソ連代表部のラストヴオロフ中佐が米軍に保護を求めた事件は大きな反響を呼んでいる。ソ連代表部では「誘拐されたのだ」と主張しており、米軍側では「自發的に保護を求めてきたものである」とだけしか辯解しておらず、事件の全貌を明らかにしないので日本政府筋はじめ各新聞も米國の態度に非難をあびせている。ラストヴオロフ中佐は日本をスパイする擔當者で、主なる役目は次の如きものといわれる。

一、日本國内、とくに北海道における米軍地上軍の行動を間斷なく報告すること

二、米空軍の能力および朝鮮への軍隊輸送に關する情報

二、日本政府部内に入り込むこと——政府ノ否定にも拘らず相當成績をあげていたといわれる

三、日本の國内運動に浸入すること

四、日ソの文化協調を推進し、左翼團体をシゲキすること

ラストヴオロフ中佐は獨系共産主義者ゾルゲの日本におけるスパイ活動を詳細に研究したとも傳えられる。リチャード・ゾルゲは第二大戰前日本に特派員として渡り、のちドイツ大使館付新聞係となり、こつそり日本人を通じてソ連に日本はシベリアを攻めず、南方へ進攻することを告げた男であつた。

漁者が不滿訴う

日下ワシントンで開催中の北太平洋漁業委員會のカナダ代表にビーシー州漁者組合では幹事ホーマー・スチーヴンス氏の名前を以て日本代表に次の諸點につき了解を求めるよう進言書を送つたと發表した。

一、今後四ヵ年間にわたる日本遠洋漁船隊の年間サモン漁獲を五百万尾に制限すること

二、四年間にわたり、日本人によつて漁獲されるサモン種類や廣範圍に調査する計畫を行うこと（これは日本漁船がビーシー近海で漁獲することを防ぐため、漁族を點檢することを要求するものである）

三、米加日ともに太平洋の中間就漁に反對する。産卵地を維持している國に對して打撃であることを指摘してほしい

▽ビーシー州沿岸漁者組合はもともと三國漁業協定に反對を唱えてきており、サモン漁業を全く保護する保障にならないと不滿を訴えてきたものである。

州と市町村（上）

―カナダという國（十一）―

各州政府の組織は大体に於て連邦政府のそれと同じである。各州知事はクウィーン（女王）を代表するものであつて、カナダ總督により任命され任期五ヶ年である。ケエベック州を除く他の州では單一の立法部（議會）を持ち、議員は一般投票によつて選出する。ケエベック州では、カナダ議會の上院に相當する終身議員からなる立法委員會と普通の州議會の二院制度を持續している。そして各州には連邦政府の内閣と同じ仕事をする州政府がある。

州議會は、州の憲法、裁判所の構成と維持等を含んだ司法関係の法律をつくる。しかし州の高等法院、地方段階裁判所の判事は（ノヴァ・スコシアとニューブランスウィック兩州の遺言裁判所の判事を除く）連邦政府がそれぞれの州の法曹界から任命する。判事の俸給も、恩給もまた連邦政府がきめる。

ユーコン、北西の兩地域―廣大だが人口はまばら―の行政は連邦政府の管下にある。ユーコンは連邦政府が任命するコミショナーと選擧された任期三ヶ年の地方委員からなる地方政府をもつている。北西地方の政府もユーコンと大体同じである。

ブリティッシュ・ノース・アメリカ・アクト（カナダ憲法）の下では、市町村は各州政府が創設することになつている。このために市町村機關の組織や権能はまちまちである。けれども市町村政府の大部分は、地方の自治機關としての権能を甚だしく擴大している。カナダ内には市町村制をしいている所が四、二三七あり、此のうち一、七八九は都市である。

漁者を制限？

▽フレザー河口の漁場について最も明るい人から、じかに聞いた話であるから信をおいてもよいものであり一片の風説にすぎないというものでない

▽戦時中、良質なる漁者を得ることに困難を經驗したキャナリーでは、日系漁者の復歸に大きい期待をかけそれだけに思い切つた經濟援助もさしのべてきたのであつた。しかし、最近になつて、各キャナリー間で漁者數を制限しようとの聲があげられているそうだ

▽その、よりより相談している事柄の對象が日系漁者だということが問題なのである。戦前、日系漁者はキャナリーに盲目的に從属していたとの非難もあるにはあつたが、他面、誠實で頼もしいという美點も認められていたことだつた

▽それが、特に年若い日系漁者によつて、今まで維持されてきた日系漁者の性格評價がくずされるにいたり遂にはその數を制限しようとの相談にまで持ちあげられてきたとのことだ

▽今のところ、あるキャナリーでは、經濟的損失を負担してまでこれを斷行するのはと躊つていて、足並が揃わないでいることは幸なことであるが、いつまでもそのままであるとは思わないとすれば、互に生業を確保するよう反省自戒しなければなるまいとその人は語るのであつた

▽表面化されないが、シーズン毎に白人漁者から發砲されたり、ケンカをふつかけられたりする事件が、かならず二件や三件はおきそうだが、日系漁者はいま微妙な立場におかれているとのことである。

ビーシーへの旅

神野　専

一月二十六日の夜行列車にてマニトバ、アルバータビーシーと、カナダ柔道連盟組織の目的をもつて出發した。息、日出男君見舞に行く角利顕夫人と同行、向井會長はじめ多數の有段者その他に見送られる。

前日ニューカナデアンに行くと梅月が「君に通信を書けというのは無理な話だが、少しは様子を知らせてくれ」と言う。生來筆不精で、友人との文通さへしていないのを同君はよく知つている。しかし今度の旅はただ遊びに行くのではない。各州に於ける柔道修業者達の気持も知りたい、各道場の状態も見、今後の打合せもあるので私にとつては非常に重荷である。

私は柔道界に身をおいてから四十年になる。この長い間、先輩の指導を受けて不肖ながら大した失敗もなく、一生を過ごしてきたことは、これひとえに柔道の賜と常に感謝している。現在七十歳に届こうとする老年になつても柔道界に居るのは、せめてはカナダに於る柔道の統一を完成することが、終生の願いでもあるし、また報恩とも考えているからである。

柔道は日本傳來の高き文化であるとともに世界的にも最も高いスポーツであると信じている。文化方面から見るとカナダには未だ完成されたそれはないといわれる。そこで我々日系市民は、我々の持つ日本文化をカナダに寄與して、カナダ文化をつくり上げて行くのが我々の務めであると信ずる。我々柔道修業者は、この心持で斯道に精進しているわけであるが、日系人各部もともに、我々を指導援助して我々の目的達成に協力して頂きたいものである。

サドバリーに着いたのは翌朝七時。零下十度だ。鐵道線路の兩側とも、緑樹に雪がかぶつてクリスマス・トリーのようである。やがて世界最大の湖水、レーキ・スーペリアだ。この地方は四十一年前に見たことがあるが、東部移動の際は夜分だつた。ピュージャン・ベーにベーパー・ミルが出來ている。パルプ材が雪をかぶつて山のようだ。勞働者の住む家であろう、ター・ペーパーのハウスが見える。我々がタシメにいた頃のことを思い出して感慨無量である。レーキは見渡す限り雪の海だ。

ウイニペッグでは三谷三段が道場を持ち、青年指導に當つていられるが、ここには歸途に立寄ることとして、渡加以來お世話になつた伊藤伊勢松氏には歸り道に訪問したい旨を書き送つた。チャザムから晩市に居らるる夫君のもとに行く、八歳ばかりの少女をつれた婦人が同乘し、角夫人も居られるので退屈しない旅ができる。ウイニペッグでは一時間停車するので市内見物に出かける。零下二十度の寒さなので私一人だ。四十年前とは見違えるほどの變り方、文化的な大都市となつている。

ムースジョウをすぎて夜の十時半にスウイフトカーレントに着くと十名ばかりがどやどやと乘車した。見るからにジプシーではないかと思われる連中で、大聲で話すやら笑うやらで騒々しいことおびただしい。夜半になつてもこれを止めない彼等の様子を見て、我が身を反省させられた。

私は生來正直であるとは自信しているが、無遠慮にモノを言うので人々に嫌われる事が度々ある。その都度あらためようと努力はするが、なかなかむずかしい。私のような者が世の中にあるのも何かの刺戟剤として許されるのではないかと、自から慰めることもあるが餘り愉快なことではない。時々、梅月君や猪間君をつかまえて「この若僧！」と怒鳴り、あべこべに兩君から叱られることもたびたびだが、私の缺點を叱つてくれる兩君に心から感謝している次第だ。又、花月さんやら角さんからは「僕のように靜かにしたらどうだ」と意見される。これにはどうしてお禮申上げてよいか、言葉がない。

メジシンハットを経てカルガリーに朝の八時に着いた。ここは九一〇年から二年間働いた所である。今チャザムに居る庄司安藏君がボスだつた。今昔の感にたえない。街も四十年昔とは全然違つている。何と澤山の新しいハウスが建つ外に出來たことよ。

やがてロッキー山にかかる。これも四十年ぶりに見ることである。シーピーアールのギャングで働きがいやになり、トランプして晩香坂まで出たことが思い出される。二十幾日もかかつて出晩したのであるが、最早や記憶にない。

アルバータとビーシーの境を見て、ここからビーシーに入るかと思うと非常に懐かしい。何か故郷へ入つた氣がする。フィールドはトランプした時に一夜寝たことがあつたので覺えている。そこの驛に、シネルが二十ある。昔つて幾十名か死者を出したロージャース・パスを見るかると、當時の惨情が思い出され、暗然たらざるを得ない。

やがてレベルストックに―ここには昔一柔道をやつて居つた庄司繁三郎君が居られる。昔、兄弟のようにして頂いた土屋一君も居られる。兩氏とは心おきなく議論したものであるが、再會できるのを樂しみに下車する。

秘密會議に入る

外相會議 中共へ要求協議

【ベルリン發】今週より初めて秘密會議に入る四國外相會議で、西部國家は中共とインド支那の平和交渉にあたる代償を持ち出すことになろうと傳えられる。すなわち、ホーチミン軍のために手を燒いているフランスとしては、この際、インド支那の戰爭を一日も早く片づけるためには中共と交渉してもよいという態度をとり、英國もこれを支持しているといわれる。しかし、中共がこの役割を買って出る前に、北京政府はまず朝鮮問題の解決に協力を示すべきであり、更にホーチミン軍に武器彈藥の輸送を中止することを前提條件として認めるべきだとしている。ベルリン會談が開始されてから、すでに二週間に經つが、ドイツ統一問題でソ連と英米佛は意見の對立を見ており、そのままで進行が妨まれている折柄、西部國家は、ソ連は果して極東情勢の緩和にいくらか讓歩するものであろうかどうか、ソ連の意圖を打診してみるハラだと觀測されている。

疑獄事件が擴大

吉田内閣の壽命危しとみらる

【東京發】戰後の二大疑獄事件が擴大し、各政黨人間にも關係者が出て來て、吉田内閣の倒壞の可能が叫ばれている。一つは新年早々から追求中であった造船計畫をめぐる汚職事件で、他は破産した保全經濟會理事長伊藤斗福氏にからむサギ事件である。

▽造船計畫のスキャンダルというのは横田・山下汽船社長を取調べた結果、政界の一部と業者との間に汚職の疑いが發生して捜査が開始されたものである。これは造船業者から「外航船建造にまつわる融資を[illegible]という法案をめぐり、一部政界人を通じて申請を有利にみちびくため贈賄を行った事實が確められたものである。

▽保全經濟會理事長の伊藤事件というのは、小中投資者からの投資で運營していた右金融機關が昨年破産するまでに、少くとも七万弗[illegible]全額を各方面[illegible]取調べを[illegible]されている。

▽以上の二大スキャンダルはますます波及し、イモづる式に各界の人物が檢擧されているが、左派社會黨委員長の鈴木茂三郎氏は、吉田政府は崩れるだろうと語っており、政府不信任を提出すると述べていた。

爲替相場は變更せずと答辯

【東京發】小笠原藏相は先週の衆議院豫算委員會で「爲替相場を變更する意思は全くない」と次のように答辯した。

「現在、爲替率が多少實勢と開いている事は[illegible]考えない。[illegible]、これを變更することは[illegible]なれば百害あって一利なし。輸出が輸入の六割に滿たない現在ではなおさらの事である。何といっても國内物價を國際水準に近づける事が第一の條件であり、相場を實勢に合せて變えることなどは全く考えていない」

世界で最初の方法

停止した心臓に電流通じ動かす

【東京發】心臓の手術の途中で一たん止った心臓が、四十分後に再び動き初め日本の醫學界で話題になっている。

この手術をうけた人は千葉市の吉岡イサオさん(三二)で、去る二日東京女子醫科大學の榊原教授の手で心瓣膜症の手術をうけた。榊原教授が吉岡さんの心臓をとり出して瓣膜の手術を終えたところ、急に心臓が止った。そこで榊原教授は心臓をマッサージー作ら血液を送り心臓が動き始めるのを待っていた。ところが今度は心臓の壁がグルグル袋に出し、このままの狀態では心臓が普通に動く見込みがなくなったので、榊原教授は心臓の縱の方向に二百ボルトの電流を〇・〇五秒間通じたところ心臓が急に動き始め、完全に止ってから四十分間後に心臓は正しい鼓動を打ち始めた。この方法は榊原教授が前から研究していたもので日本では勿論、世界でも初めての方法で、この成功により今まで絶望とされていた心瓣膜症の手術に明るい見通し[illegible]。

Varsity, Phantoms Enjoy Recent Hoop Session; Van. Cagers to Host Raymond Busseis Feb. 26

VANCOUVER. — It is now definite that the Vancouver Nisei cagers will be hosting the highly-touted Raymond Busseis from Alberta on Feb. 26 at the spacious Kitsilano Memorial Centre. The local basketeers are all keyed up for this event with great enthusiasm and anticipation, and coach John Yamabe is busy lining up a strong aggregation to oppose the Albertans.

A preliminary game between the Vancouver Teeners and a team from Steveston will get under way at 7:30 p.m. sharp. West coasters will be in for a treat that evening as a social dance is slated to follow the games. Various entertainment is being planned, so all are urged to keep Feb. 26 open for this much-awaited event.

The outcome of the league games played on Feb. 4 meanwhile, were as follows.

Varsity 52; Teeners 43

In a battle for last place in the Vancouver Nisei league, the hard-luck Teeners emerged on the short end of a 52-43 count, their victors being the ever-improving Varsity five.

Although the Teens raced to a comfortable 24-16 half-time lead, their pacing was short-lived as the Students caught fire in the third quarter and managed to pull ahead by a single point 36-35.

The final stanza saw the scrappy Teenagers fall apart to be outscored by the hustling campus boys 16-8.

For Varsity, hard-working Yosh Saito played his usual strong game to come through with 19 points. His brother Mash, formerly of Winnipeg fame, played his first game and helped the cause with 13. Mitch Tanaka and John Nakata sank 14 and 13 respectively to lead the Teeners in a losing effort.

Phantoms 53; Tad's 50

One of the best games played to date was witnessed in the second tilt as the lucky Phantoms managed to keep their winning streak intact by eking out a narrow and thrilling victory over the determined Tad's quintet 53-50.

It was an uphill grind all the way for the Phantoms with the Sporting Goods crew leading the score from the opening whistle until the final minute of play.

Tad's was [illegible] to upset [illegible] second as they [illegible] lead at the [illegible] end of the third quarter with Tad's [illegible] leading by 37-[illegible].

In the final canto, however, John Yamabe and S. Tahara, both taking 23 points for the evening, spearheaded the Phantom rally, and with some lucky breaks, tied the score at 50-50. With seconds to go and tension mounting, Bob Miyagishima fouled John Yamabe. Yamabe coolly sank the first one, and although he missed the second, he retrieved his rebound and shot true, his final three points being the margin of victory.

For Tad's, [illegible] Hara was high with 15 points, while teammates Shig Tabata and smooth Roy Ikeda hooped [illegible] apiece. —S.T.

TORONTO BASKETBALL

Orphans Leading in Intermediate Finals Race; Rebels Take 6-Pt. Edge over W. Kids in Sr. Semi

TORONTO. — Last Friday, Feb. 5, saw the first half of the Toronto Nisei Basketball League semi-finals played at St. Vlad's gym, with the Orphans taking the first intermediate victory and the Rebels nosing out the Whiz Kids in the senior division.

Orphans — Ozarks

It was a very close-checking affair that the Orphans edged out the Ozarks 56-49 to take a 7-point lead in the two-game total-points series for the intermediate title.

The game was tense and deliberate as neither team took many chances. The first half proceeded in parallel fashion with the Ozarks taking a slight 15-14 lead at the quarter and 33-26 at the half.

In the third quarter, however, the Orphans decided to open up a bit and overtook the Ozarks for a 42-41 edge. The stretch quarter saw both teams throw caution to the wind, the Orphans desperate to lengthen their lead, the Ozarks doing their best to close the gap.

Being slightly more accurate in their shooting, the Orphans managed to pull away from the Ozarks hot pursuit, and they now hold a 7-point edge over their opponents for the second and deciding game this Friday.

In view of the close-checking nature of the game, a total of 40 fouls were called during the game, each side getting 20. Whereas the Orphans failed to succeed in only 4 points of their free throws, the Ozarks dropped 10 points — which means that should the Ozarks hope to win their next game, some sharpening up will have to be done on their foul shooting.

Rebels — Whiz Kids

From all appearances in the first quarter, the odds were that the Rebels were going to walk over the Whiz Kids, with the quarter ending 15-5 in favour of the former. The Kids shooting during the initial stanza was indeed erratic, in fact so miserable that not a single field goal was scored by them.

The first field goal for the Kids was scored by Y. Kameoka after two minutes of the second quarter. Therewith, however, the Kids caught afire and continued to outplay the Rebels till midway through the stretch quarter, at which point only two points separated them from the Rebs.

With the alarming narrowness of the gap, however, the Rebels woke up to halt the Kids barrage and finished off the game with a 6-point edge at 67-61.

The winner of the senior division two-game total-point series (to be decided this Friday), will be given a chance to dethrone the mighty Mustangs in the finals for the senior crown.

Exhibition

To round up the evening, an exhibition game was also staged between the Mustangs and the St. Christopher team, the Mustangs emerging on top 78-72.

ALTA. BASKETBALL

Alta. 'Niseis' Trimmed by Vamps; Miss Chance for Last Playoff Spot

LETHBRIDGE. — The Alberta JCCA "Niseis" dropped lower into second division in the Lethbridge City Men's Basketball League here Feb. 2, as the seventh-place Readymade Vampires trimmed the JCCA-sponsored club 51-40.

The loss sent the "Niseis" tumbling into sixth place in the eight-team loop.

Sam Koyata pushed the JCCA squad into the lead from the free throw line but the Vamps shook loose and commanded a 16-6 bulge after ten minutes of play. "Niseis" were trailing 22-18 at the half.

The "Niseis" started the second half like a ball of fire as they pumped in five straight baskets to jump ahead into the lead after two minutes; however, the Vampires came back strongly to knot the count, then pulled ahead for good after another five minutes and held a 37-30 lead in thirty minutes. The Vamps outscored the "Niseis" 14-10 in the final ten minutes of play.

Five feet 10½ Mas Kitagawa paced the losers' attack with 17 points, followed by steady Sam Koyata with 12 and Nobby Hayashi with 7. Yukimi Saka and Mike Kitagawa hooped 2 points apiece.

TYBA, Sangha Members to Hear Guest Speaker

TORONTO. — Mr. Richard Robinson will be the guest speaker at the morning service for the members of the Toronto Young Buddhists' Society and the Sangha, which will take place on Feb. 14 at 22 College St., from 11 a.m.

Mr. Robinson was born in Calgary, Alta., where he attended both public and high school. He furthered his studies at the University of Alberta, majoring in Economics and Modern Languages. He graduated in 1947.

Keenly interested in the study of Buddhism since his high school days, he completed a study of the Surangama Sutra, one of the most philosophical Buddhist scriptures, during his youthful days. He later came to Toronto, where he was instrumental in the organizations of the Asoka Society.

In 1950, he left for London, England, to enroll at the University of London. He received his B.A. in Honour Classical Chinese, graduating with his honours. He has also studied Japanese, Sanskrit and Tibetan.

His translation from Chinese of five important Buddhist works, the Shoshinge, Junirai, Shoyaraisan, Sambutsuge, Jusei-ge, will be published in England this April in the Wisdom of the East series. At present he is working

All members and friends are cordially invited to hear Mr. Robinson who will speak on "Buddhism in Europe."

Adventists Church Solicits Your Help

TORONTO. — The Seventh-Day Adventists Church is constantly striving to carry forward its world-wide program of Christian uplift work. Hospitals, dispensaries, schools and missionary stations are in operation throughout the world.

Seventh-Day Adventists of every land are contributing regularly in support of this splendid enterprise; however, the gifts of these church members are small in comparison with the world's great need. So, once every year, the Seventh-Day Adventists Church solicits contributions from the general public.

Now again, the occasion has arrived for world-wide solicitation. The Japanese Seventh-Day Adventists Church in Toronto will launch its annual uplift work commencing on Feb. 13. In connection therewith, your liberal contribution will be greatly appreciated. — Pastor I. Shimomura.
